

DENTAL & MEDICAL AESTHETICS CLINIC

Your personal information How we look after and safeguard information about you

Protecting your information

We aim to provide you with the highest quality of care. To do this we need to keep records about you, your health and the care we have provided or plan to provide to you. We know that you value your privacy and the security of personal information held about you.

Information recorded

Information recorded about you may include:

- 1) Basic details, such as address, date of birth, next of kin
- 2) Details and clinical records about your treatment, medical and social health
- 3) Records of medicines you have been prescribed
- 4) Information relevant to your continued care from other people who care for you and know you well, such as other health professionals and relatives.

SHARING INFORMATION

The information held about you will not be shared for any reason, unless:

You ask us to do so

We ask and you give us specific permission

We are required by law, for example prescribers must be notified where a patient presents a repeat prescription and the pharmacist becomes aware of clinically significant issues arising in connection with that prescription

We are permitted by law, for example where public interest overrides the need to keep the information confidential

Anyone who receives information from us also has a legal duty to keep this information confidential, subject to recognised exceptions of the types listed above

Your right to view your clinical records

You have the right to view the original of your clinical records free of charge. To request a copy, please write to the Practice Manager and a copy will be provided within 30 working days.

Confidentiality

You have the right to confidentiality. We also comply with the NHS Code of Practice on Confidentiality and healthcare personnel have a requirement under their professional code of ethics to keep records about you confidential, secure and accurate.

All of our staff contracts of employment contain a requirement to keep patient information confidential.

COMPLAINTS

We welcome comments, suggestions and complaints so that we can continually improve our services to you.

Please contact the Practice Manager in person or by phone, letter or email if you have a comment, suggestion or complaint.

We take complaints very seriously and have an effective procedure to resolve any problems in the shortest possible time.

You can read more about our procedure in our complaints policy.

If you would prefer to let us know of your thoughts anonymously please complete our automatic survey which is sent via email after your appointment.

Help us be the best that we can be!

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) ACT 2000

The Freedom of Information Act, gives the general right of access to all types of recorded information held by the practice. The intention of the Act is to encourage a spirit of openness and transparency in the NHS and the whole public sector. Our organisation aims to fully support this.

Any individual or organisation can make a request for information. The applicant does not have to explain why this information is requested.

Our Publication Scheme

This practice has developed a publication scheme. It is a guide to information, routinely published and gives indication of information intended to be published. The publication scheme describes the form in which the information is published and any fees that will be charged. A request can be made from information listed in this publication scheme.

If you would like a copy of our publication scheme please contact the Data Controller.

RESPONDING TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUESTS

All requests for information will be responded to within 20 working days. A fee can be charged when dealing with a request. This will be calculated in accordance with the Act. If a fee is required for information requested, the 20 day timescale can be extended to up to three months.

Should the request for information exceed the charges set by the Secretary of State, this practice does not have to action the request.

Legal basis

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

"medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment.."

And Consent.

Policies and procedures

The practice has a number of important policies that detail how we provide care and service to our patients. Please ask the Practice Manager if you would like to see copies of the following policies or procedures:

- o Confidentiality policy
- o Data protection policy
